

BOONDOCKERS WELCOME

Hosts offer free overnight RV parking on private property.

ABOUT US

In 2012 Boondockers Welcome was created by Marianne Edwards and her daughter Anna Maste in the hopes of creating a network and community of like-minded RVers. Our web platform lets members arrange overnight stays with each other for free while traveling through an area. Connecting through the web site allows RVers to travel more economically and, in peak season, find an option when campgrounds may be full. Many of our members, in fact, offer electric and water to guests so, RVers who prefer hookups can often have them.

HOW IT WORKS

- Members join by purchasing a guest privileges subscription at $50 USD per year, or listing a host location for free.
- Members create profiles to tell other members about themselves, their RV, and their host location if they offer one.
- Guests can search for hosts using a variety of parameters that include the size of their RV, location, permission to bring pets and amenities offered.
- Guests can then send a stay request to a host for specific dates. Hosts are rewarded with guest privileges subscription credits to use on their own travels for each guest they welcome.

WHO ARE WE

Marianne Edwards Co-Founder and Chief Boondocker

Boondockers Welcome is the brainchild of Marianne Edwards, author of The Frugal Shunpiker's Guides, the popular e-book series that guides you to the best free camping sites throughout the Southwestern United States. Marianne has been RVing for over 15 years and has become an industry expert in how to enjoy big travel on a small budget. She has been profiled in the New York Times and has contributed to many RV industry magazines and newsletters where she has shared her vast knowledge about finding free scenic RV camping on public lands.

Anna Maste Co-Founder and CTO

Anna is proud to be the co-founder of Boondockers Welcome along with Marianne, who also happens to be her mother. Anna has a degree in Computer Engineering from the University of Toronto and spent a decade working in embedded software development before making the leap to her own tech startup. Anna built the website (twice) by herself and continues to be our lead developer at Boondockers Welcome. She is currently building our mobile app which will launch in Summer 2020.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"Boondockers Welcome is a brilliant idea, beautifully executed by fantastic people. We've met Marianne and Anna in person more than once, and can clearly see how they were able to create such a thoughtful tool. It's because they're lovely people who truly care about the RVing community. Our experiences using Boondockers Welcome have fit perfectly into our lives as RVers, which is to say it brings us into contact with wonderful people we might not otherwise have met. Of all the tools we recommend to our fellow RVers to improve their experience, BW is right up there at the top."

- Peter Knize & John Sullivan

The RVgeeks, Hosts of The RVers TV show, and 17-year full-timers.

"Absolutely the best group for anyone who travels by RV. Have met incredible, friendly, generous people from all over Canada, the United States and even as far away as Australia and France! So a HUGE Thank You to BW for forming this group and for all it has meant to my wife and I as hosts and as guests."
